In a bold late-stage gamble, Amgen has agreed to pay $425 million in cash to license a promising cancer vaccine from Woburn, MA-based BioVex, a 2009 Fierce 15 company which migrated to the U.S. several years ago in search of better VC relations. And Amgen promised another $575 million in milestones, offering up to a billion dollars in total to capture new therapies that use two fists to punch against cancer.
